Dear Ferd:

I greatly enjoyed the talk with you Sunday a week ago and I only wish we could have had longer at it. If I get to New York or Lloyd Neck again in the near future I shall be on your doorstep.

I am sending you by separate cover the book of Stalin's Correspondence with Roosevelt, Truman, Churchill and Attlee. Since this is a Russian publication, I cannot vouch for its accuracy but because all of the documentation is also in other and reputable hands I doubt whether they would take a chance at any editing, although where translations are involved, there may be some questions as to the fidelity with which they have been made. Anyway, I found it interesting reading.

Sincerely,

PERSONAL

July 17, 1958

Dear Allie:

Thanks for yours of the 18th and for your thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of the Stalin correspondence, which I will read with the greatest interest so as to be prepared for a discussion when next you appear at Target Rock, which I hope may be very soon though the international political weather at this moment indicates the contrary.

It is always a pleasure to see and talk with you and, as you know, since our children have "flown the coop", Target Rock usually has a few vacant bedrooms which could not be more agreeably filled, from the point of view of Mary and myself, than by you and Clover.

As ever,

Sincerely,

Joe
